

Schoongezicht birds – seen regularly in gardens and around the estate

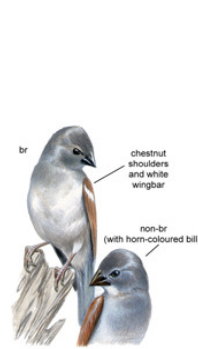

Cape Weaver

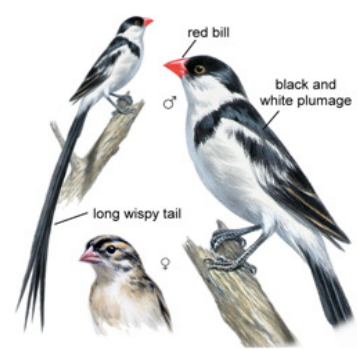

Common Waxbill

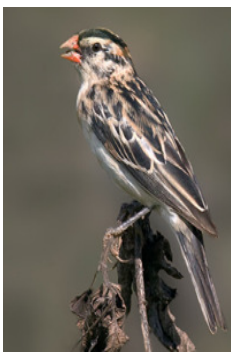

Cape Bulbul

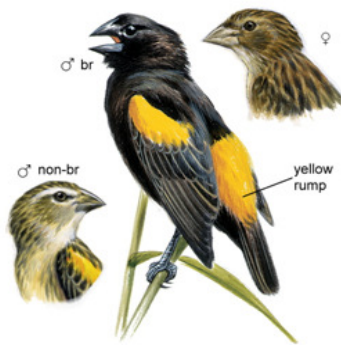

Southern Grey-headed sparrow

Pin-tailed Whydah - breeding

Pin-tailed Whydah–non breeding

Yellow Bishop

Streaky-headed seedeater

Red-Eyed Dove

Cape Turtle Dove

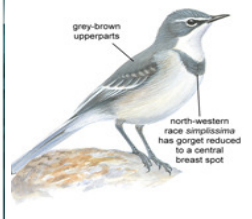

Speckled Pigeon

Common Fiscal

Fiscal Flycatcher

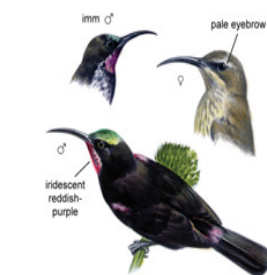

Cape Wagtail

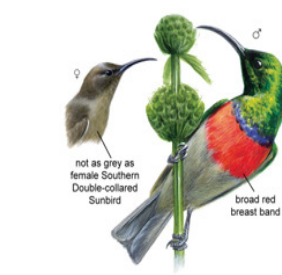

Southern Boubou

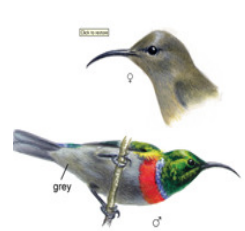

Cape Robin-chat

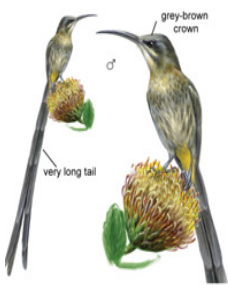

Amethyst Sunbird

Greater Double-collar Sunbird

Southern Double-collared Sunbird

Cape Sugarbird

Fork-tailed Drongo

Sombre Greenbul

Helmeted Guineafowl

Red-necked Spurfowl

Egyptian Goose

Red-Knobbed Coot

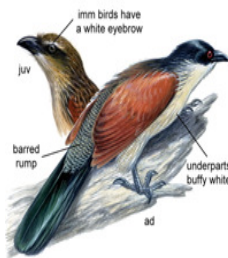

Reed Cormorant

Knysna Turaco

Spotted Eagle-owl

Burchell's Coucal

Common Starling

Spotted Thick-knee

Common Moorhen

Rock Martin

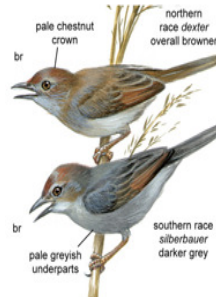

Hadeda Ibis

African Sacred Ibis

Karoo Prinia

Neddicky

Black-headed Heron

Speckled Mousebird

Red-Faced-Mousebird

Black-headed Oriole

Kelp Gull

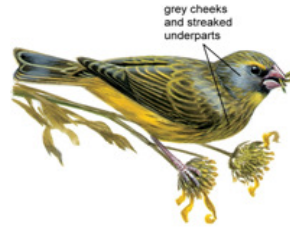

Pied Kingfisher

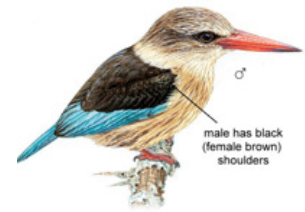

Brimstone Canary

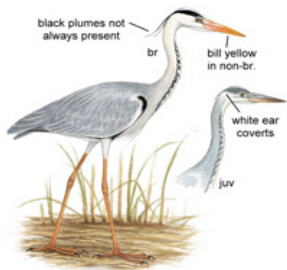

Cape Canary

Forest Canary

Brown-hooded Kingfisher

Grey Heron

Birds most likely to be seen along the boardwalk

Bar-Throated Apalis

Cape Batis

Terrestrial Brownbul

Puffback

Chorister Robin-Chat

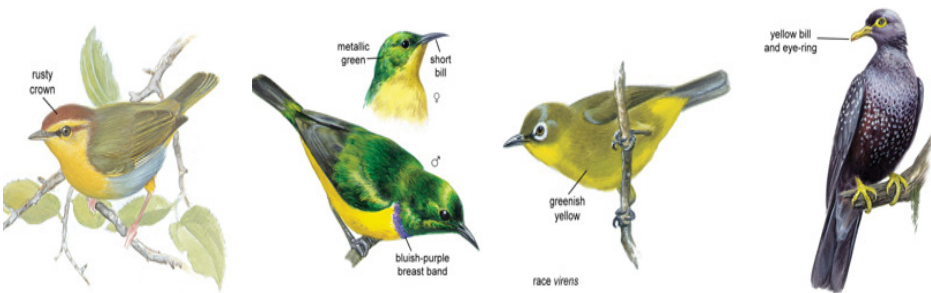

Olive Bush-shrike

Blue-mantled Crested-flycatcher

African Paradise Flycatcher

Olive Woodpecker

Knysna Woodpecker

Yellow-Throated Woodland Warbler

Collared Sunbird

Cape White Eye

African Olive Pigeon